

Hello Ladies,

I hope you are all doing well and enjoyed the break. The weather being good has made a big difference I think, make sure you're getting out and enjoying it (while still social-distancing of course!).

I've enjoyed hearing from you, and I'm delighted that so many of you are reading, working and interacting with me by email. I've also heard from some proud guardians who are delighted with the way you're working at home. I'm very proud of you all, keep it up!

I've put together another week of work, it's laid out similarly to last week but here's a guide to how it works again:

Some activities I will not be collecting, they will have a NO in the 'Submission box' below. For other work I will be asking you to email me some of your learning where possible- these will be marked YES in the submission box.

If you need to use your parent/ guardians email to do this that is perfectly fine. In order to submit a picture/ sound clip or document to me please ensure that you put your name, date and title of the task in the subject of the email to me so that I know who it is and what is being submitted.

I will check my emails every day (Mon-Fri) but is your responsibility to email these to me each day or as soon as you can! I am available from 9.10-2.50pm and will try to respond to you all.

I'm very much looking forward to seeing you all again in class soon and hearing all about what you've been getting up to. Stay safe.

Mr. O'Flaherty

Below is a summary of some of the events that happened during the Easter Rebellion that took place in Dublin over 100 years ago. This event is credited as a big step forward in Ireland becoming independent of the British Empire. Read over this summary and draw a picture of an image that stands out to you.

Use a pencil, paper and colours to create your picture. Add some dialogue (speaking/shouting..) to your picture using speech bubbles.

Yes. Please attach a picture of your work and send to my email.

		Reading Sheet <h2 style="text-align: center;">1916 Easter Rising Timeline Events</h2> The 1916 Monday 24th April 1916  150 Irish Volunteers march from Liberty Hall to the GPO. Pádraig Pearse is the commander-in-chief. At the GPO, Pearse reads the Proclamation of the Irish Republic. The Irish flag is raised over the GPO. Other groups of Volunteers occupy and take over other buildings around Dublin such as Jacob's Biscuit Factory, The Four Courts, Boland's Mill and The College of Surgeons. The GPO becomes the headquarters of the Easter Rising. Tuesday 25th April 1916  Looters begin to empty shops on Sackville Street (O'Connell Street) for their goods. The British are not successful in their efforts to retake the GPO, leaving many of their army and horses dead. Inside the GPO, all is well and calm. However, Pearse announces that there is a shortage of ammunition. The Volunteers are preparing for a British invasion, who have begun to surround the city. Wednesday 26th April 1916  At Boland's Mill, Eamon de Valera and a cohort of Volunteers ambush a group of British soldiers and succeed. Gunfire can be heard all over the city. The British have sent their gunboat The Helga up the Liffey which is firing at Liberty Hall. More than 200 British soldiers are killed. Thursday 27th April 1916  James Connolly is injured close to Sackville Street. He returns to the GPO to seek help. The fighting continues. Friday 28th April 1916  The GPO is in flames. Many of the Volunteers are dead and others are badly injured. Despair hits across the city as defeat begins to set in. Pearse orders the evacuation of the GPO. Saturday 29th April 1916  Pearse orders the Volunteers to surrender at 3.45pm. Elizabeth O'Farrell, a nurse, carries a white flag to signify this. Pearse writes a surrender document, ending the Rising. By 7pm the leaders have all been arrested and rotten food is thrown at them as they are led away. The Rising is over.
