

Class: Junior Infants

Week beginning: 5th May 2020

Hello Junior Infants,

It has been a long time since we've seen each other. What has been going on in your life? I would love to hear. How are you spending your time? I am so delighted that more and more children and their amazing Moms and Dads are having fun with the activities I'm sending every week. I cannot thank you enough for your dedication and effort.

Toby, Bainne and I have been having fun in the sunshine. We spend a lot of time outside. I even got a new picnic bench so I can do my school work out in the fresh air.

I have put together some revision activities for you for this week. Monday is a bank holiday so the plan starts from Tuesday.

Some activities I will not be collecting, however for others I will be asking you to email me some of your learning where possible- these will be marked YES in the submission box. If you need to use your parent/ guardians email to do this that is perfectly fine. In order to submit a picture/ sound clip or document to me, please ensure that you put your name and title of the task in the subject of the email, so that I know who it is and what is being submitted. I will check my emails every day, please email me your work as soon as you can.

Wishing you good health and happiness over the coming weeks.

deliaryan@smtullow.ie

P.S If there is a subject that you do not participate in e.g Religion please spend extra time on the Maths and English activities.

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT WE ARE UNABLE TO ACCEPT VIDEOS OR PICTURES THAT CONTAIN PICTURES OF YOUR CHILD OR THEIR SIBLINGS.

Weekly Poem : Bumblebee	Hail Mary	Morning Prayer	Night Prayer
Buzz, buzz, buzz said the bumblebee, Here it comes, he's after me. Oh no he's not, for I can see, He's on his way to the apple tree.	Hail Mary, Full of Grace, The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of our death. Amen.	Father in heaven, you love me, You're with me night and day. I want to love you always, In all I do and say. I'll try to please you Father. Bless me through the day. Amen.	God our Father, I come to say Thank you for your love today. Thank you for my family, And all the friends you give to me. Guard me in the dark of night, And in the morning send your light. Amen.

Please feel free to use any other internet resources you are aware of. I will update you with additional resources as the weeks go on. I am conscious of parents becoming overwhelmed with the vast amount of resources that are available, so keep it simple using the above links for now. The most important thing is to share experiences with your child that are fun, engaging, easy and suit your family's lifestyle, you do not need internet sites to achieve this. You are doing a great job already! Please feel free to amend the plan above to suit your home life.

'Ave Maria'

'There's one, Nan!' said Aoibhinn.

'Ohhh ... That's a great one!' exclaimed Nan. 'It's a bluebell. Pick it up and bring it over!'

'Do we need more?' asked Aoibhinn. Nan looked at the bundle on the ground. 'Maybe just a couple,' she said.

Aoibhinn plucked two buttercups from the ground and ran back to her nan with them.

'That's just great!' said Nan. 'And I have just the thing to put them in!'

Nan and Aoibhinn walked back through the long grass to Nan's house. There was no one else there.

Gently, Nan took the flowers that she and Aoibhinn had collected and started to arrange them in the jar.

'Why don't you bring Mary flowers at other times of the year?' asked Aoibhinn.

'I suppose you can,' answered Nan. 'It's just, when I was a little girl, we always made a special effort to do it in May.'

Nan pulled a blue ribbon from her cupboard. Carefully, she tied it around the jam jar. It looked beautiful.

'Ready to give them to her?' asked Nan.

'Yes!' replied Aoibhinn.

'Where is she?' Aoibhinn whispered.

'Over there,' said Nan, pointing to the statue on the windowsill in the kitchen.

Aoibhinn walked towards the statue of Mary.

'She's wearing blue!' said Aoibhinn. 'It's the same colour as your ribbon!'

Carefully, Nan reached over and placed the jar of flowers at Mary's feet. There was a candle beside the statue, and Nan lit it.

Aoibhinn looked up at Nan. She wasn't making any noise but her lips were moving and her eyes were closed. Aoibhinn wondered what Nan was saying to Mary. After a moment, Nan blessed herself, and Aoibhinn did too. Nan lifted the candle down to Aoibhinn, and Aoibhinn blew it out.

'Nan,' she asked, 'what were you saying to Mary?'

'I was remembering a song that I learned at school,' answered Nan. 'It was a beautiful song. We used to sing it every May. It went like this ...

"Ave, ave, ave Maria."
